"President Fooling People", Kaltenborn

Jewish Leaders Assail Lindbergh

SAN FRANCISCO,—A protest against the speech of Charles A. Lindbergh at Des Moines, Ia., was telegraphed to the America First committee headquarters in Chicago by a group of 19 Jewish leaders in civic and professional life of San Francisco. It said:

"Charles A. Lindbergh in his speech last Thursday night adopted the Hitler device of attempting to incite the American public to hatred and distrust of those Americans who are of the Jewish faith. Lindbergh by these utterances has now shown that in order to accomplish his purposes, whatever they may be, he is willing to attempt to set group against group and thereby adopt the tactics by which the Nazis have destroyed country after country.

"America First owes it to the American people to denounce Lindbergh's tactics. Failing in this, America First must stand in the eyes of the American public convicted of sponsoring an exponent of Nazi tactics within the United States of America."

KALTENBORN EXPOSES PRESIDENT

In his Sunday 11:15 A. M. broadcast over KFI, Sept. 14, K. V. Kaltenborn commented on the President Roosevelt's "shoot German war vessels" radio address. He stated that the American people love to be fooled and imagine that they are not going into war by helping England and as long as President Roosevelt does the important thing: helping England step by step, it does not matter that the people are fooled. Kaltenborn hoped the day will be here when the President will no longer need to fool the people but be able to tell them straight that WE ARE IN THE WAR.

Evidently, Kaltenborn belongs to the Wendell Willkie school of thought. Its all campaign oratory, important thing is GET USA INTO WAR.

This is the perfect example of the TALMUD teachings about tricking Gentiles.

During the same broadcast Kaltenborn scorned Charles Lindbergh's classification of the Jews with the Roosevelt administration and the British as the three major groups that are driving the USA into war. Kaltenborn scorned Lindbergh for not presenting any proof of his charges.

Since Lindbergh spoke on behalf of the America First Committee it is now up to him and the Committee to substantiate the charges with concrete proof, or else they will have to retract the charges as Henry Ford retracted his charges when confronted by Aron Shapiro's libel suit..

LIMIT TO TOLERANCE

Kaltenborn also stated that there is a limit to tolerance, meaning that it will not be tolerated by THEM to have Lindbergh accuse the Jews without bringing the proof. He said that tolerance reaches its limit when confronted by aggressive intolerance.

How true this is. The American people will reach that limit, Lindbergh has already reached it, when confronted by the fact that three major groups want to kill us and our children in this war.

Boake Carter says:—"Let no one persuade you that the Roosevelt gold policy of production based upon debt can end in success. It must end in disaster when our national interest tops fifty million dollars a day and our national pay envelope is less than thirty-nine million a day . . . "

Lindbergh's Proof

COUNT THEM: Roosevelt, Jews, British and Refugees

Charles Augustus Lindbergh does not have to go far to prove his words and tell the Hearst papers to eat their front page elitorials. On Sunday Sept. 14, the Los Angeles Examiner carried on page 11 the following item which proves completely everything said by Lindbergh about the three major groups of war mongers.

Support of FDR Urged; Meet Set

Calling for support of President Roosevelt's foreign policy, the Jewish Radio Committee for Unified Action yesterday announced plans for a mass meeting Tuesday night at the Embassy auditorium.

Speakers will include Rabbi Jacob Sondering, Nikolai I. Belov, Russian vice-consul; L. T. Niemo, Polish consul; Dr. Felix Janovsky, Czechoslovakian consul, and a representative of the British War Relief Association.

Why THEY Want War

That Lindbergh is right in his statement about the British, the Jews and the Roosevelt administration wanting war, goes without question. And one of the reasons why they want war is because, then, the JEWS will be THE American government, complete dictators as they were in Soviet Russia after the overthrow of Kerensky. THEY murdered over 20 million Christians. The TIMES-ADVOCATE of Escondido, Calif., states the case:

TAKEN as a whole, the newspapers of the country are backing up President Roosevelt on his stand as expressed in his recent address to the nation and to the world relative to "shooting on sight the axis warships when met in the zones outlined as necessary to American defense." On the other hand, the newspapers are giving space, and in most cases front page space to the utterances of Lindbergh and others who criticize Roosevelt and say that he is joining in with the British and Jewish people in forcing the United States into active war. All of this shows that the newspapers are at least broad-minded and willing to support to the last notch the ideal of freedom of speech as well as freedom of the press. Everybody seems to think that we will be at war, outright and outspoken on top of the table. When that day comes, if it comes, such utterances as those of Lindbergh and his supporters will be in opposition to the government. Oppostion to the government in time of war is an act that is described with one ugly word—treason. The case will take care of itself.

Holy Party

Those Gentiles who have been in synagogues have seen the holy scroll of parchment on which is inscribed by hand the Hebrew text of the Pentateuch, or the first five books of the Bible, known as the Sefer Torah. Enlightening it is to learn that the Sefer Torah may be viewed at Hyde Park. But let the Jewish Examiner tell the story—

"Conspicuously displayed in the main hall of the recently dedicated Franklin Delano Roosevelt Library at the President's estate at Hyde Park, N. Y. is a Sefer Torah. It lies enclosed in a glass show-case, adorned with the traditional silver ornaments and surrounded by other Jewish religious ceremonial objects such as Kiddush wine cups and Habdalah spice boxes.

"Among the guests whom the President had invited to attend the official dedication exercises held on June 30, 1941 were eight Jews. They included Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Secretary of the Treasury; Felix Frankfurter, Justice of the Supreme Court; Samuel Rosenman, Justice of the New York Supreme Court; Nathan Strauss, Chairman of the Federal Housing Commission; Sol Rosenblatt, attorney for the Democratic National Committee; Mrs. Dorothy Backer, wife of the publisher of the New York Post and granddaughter of Jacob Schiff; Mrs. Anna Rosenberg, Regional Director of the Social Security Board; and Joel Slonim, a Yiddish poet and journalist on the staff of The Day. They too were conspicuous because of the marked cordiality shown them by President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

" . . . Edward Flynn, the chairman of the National Democratic Committee and director of Roosevelt's 1940 election campaign, remarked: 'If Hitler were to see this, he would have an apoplectic stroke.' To which a friend replied: 'If only we could arrange to have him see it!'

"When Frankfurter and Rosenman joined the group at the Sefer Torah, conversation veered from Hitlerism to the understanding of Hebrew . . . Judge Rosenman proudly asserted that he could read it. Basil O'Connor, the President's former law partner, climaxed the general conversation with the remark: 'Franklin has been looking at this so often that I wouldn't be surprised if he has by this time learned some Hebrew himself.'

"When Judge Rosenman and Strauss were alone the former confided to the latter that in his opinion the Sefer Torah should not repose in any glass show-case. 'We shall see to it that a special Aron Kodesh—Holy Ark—with open doors is constructed to hold the Holy Scroll.' "

Ed Flynn's remark about Hitler's having a stroke if he could only see what the President has in his Library— maintained at the public's expense, by the way—goes somewhat far afield. Hitler would probably decide that the exhibit was not at all out of character for the Chief Executive of the present Administration. These Yiddishers flatter themselves. On the whole, Hitler would be interested in none of it. It's the American Gentiles, over a hundred million strong right here in the United States, who are the more inclined to have apoplexy at the private home of the President of their Gentile Christian nation being turned into this kind of Jerusalem-on-the-Hudson. And Joel Slonim, Yiddish poet and journalist on the New York Jewish Day, was there. Don't overlook Joel or the paper that employs him. The New York Jewish Day is commonly registered as a communist sheet.

The Roosevelts at home, with the Rosenblatts and Slonims! Is it any wonder we're sending aid to Russia and watching America go anti-Semitic such as Germany never was, even when Hitler took power?—Roll Call.

Lindbergh Is Right

Gen. Robert E. Wood
Sears Roebuck & Co., Chicago, Illinois.

My dear General:

It was very praiseworthy of the 58 "prominent Americans" to unite in a public condemnation of President Roosevelt's "shoot on sight" orders to the Navy on the seven seas; but will that condemnation change the charted course of the war mongers?

Charles A. Lindbergh not only stated the case in his Des Moines rebuttal of the New Deal "freedom of the seas", but he also gave the remedy. He said that three major groups are driving our nation into war: The British, the Jews and the Roosevelt administration; that ony two of them could not succed without the aid of the third. This makes it quite plain how the war can be stopped yet, for as soon as American participation is definitely withheld, they will have peace in Europe within a fortnight, beginning with an armistice on all fronts.

Of the three groups, which one is to be eliminated first from active war mongering? The House vote of 202-203 shows definitely that Congressmen know what to expect from the electorate. Instead of mere public statements of condemnation why don't you 58 prominent Americans do that which alone will eliminate the governmental group of war mongers? Why don't you unite in a frontal, fearless and honest demand upon the House to impeach the Executive? You know he cannot take it when the mass of public opinion hits him politically.

With Roosevelt having to defend himself, you will see how fast the Jewish groups will scuttle to cover and efface themselves. They are forward only when safe and protected.

And what is there to stop our PEACE MONGERING senators and Congressmen, as the British minister of information Brendan Bracken calls them, from instituting an investigation of British war propaganda in this country.

Unless you and the 57 Americans unite in doing the EFFECTIVE thing NOW to put the fear of God and of the Constitution into the three major groups of war mongers, you are merely wasting your time.

George Washington attacked the then existing government openly to insure the Independence of the U. S. as free colonies. Today with Union NOW, we are subjects of Britain and Russia, placing them above American citizenry who must face ruin of their own system of government and American life that British Imperialism and Soviet Atheism be protected to perpetuate and spread its tentacles, everywhere in the world.

Hoping you follow the path of George Washington, Sincerely,

C. LEON de ARYAN.

Impeach Roosevelt

Senator Arthur Capper,
Senate Office Bldg., Washington D. C.

My dear Senator Capper:

To say that I was astonished at your type of logic in support of the President's war mongering, is to put it mildly.

According to the Associated Press you stated that "the people and the congress of the United States MUST and will support that action" of the President in ordering the navy to shoot axis vessels in American defense waters.

If the classification of American defense waters were an honest classification, I would join your declaration; but since when has the New Deal become an honest American policy? The mark of the New Deal is furtiveness, indirection, misinformation and breach of oaths and pledges.

I wish to recall to your mind the statement of President Roosevelt that as assistant secretary of the navy under Woodrow Wilson he committed enough illegal acts to be sent to the penitentiary for 999 years. But instead the nation went to war and his criminal acts became legalized.

Today we are faced with the same situation. Your logic is like that of our proverbial fellow who lost a dime in the crack of his cabin floor and in order to make it worth his while to tear up the flooring he threw a dollar after it.

Why do you propose that we destroy the whole floor of our American system of life and of government, by going to war to cover up the illegal actions of the President who flouted the Congress and his own campaign pledges, violating his solemn oath of office!?

The folly of such reasoning is evident. If a man commits a crime should we subvert and abolish our judicial system to protect him? If this is absurd on the face of it in a private case, why do you propose to repeat the 1917 performance once more to cover up the perfidies and illegal acts of the President.

Had he been sent to jail under Wilson, then the American government would have been strengthened and if you want this nation to remain a powerful nation then uphold the Constitution and don't tear it down to cover up the illegal acts of the Executive.

It is your solemn duty as a sworn officer of the U. S. Senate to use your influence to the end that impeachment proceedings be instituted in the House.

Sincerely yours
C. LEON de ARYAN.

"I'm A Peace Monger"

WASHINGTON,— Calling our isolationists "peace mongers" is a funny little quip all right, but it's doubtful that it was a very sound tick-tack in connection with an argument in favor of active American participation in the current war. The fact that an Englishman was the one who perpetrated it didn't improve the matter.

British Minister of Information Brendan Bracken delivered the thrust, immediately following the recent twin speeches, in London, by Prime Minister Winston Churchill and Canadian Premier Mackenzie King, appealing for all-out Yankee aid to John Bull.

These two having finished, Minister Bracken took occasion to broadcast an invitation to members of Uncle Sam's congress to visit England and look over the situation. "We're anxious," he concluded, "for independent witnesses and critics but not peace mongers."

The War Mongers

Now, it tends to make Washington's interventionist statesmen sore to be referred to as "war mongers". Nobody likes to be represented as an out-and-out seeker for a fight. It's perfectly respectable, however, to advocate peace—if possible. And the isolationists insist that it IS possible, so far as the United States is concerned; they're FOR it, and not only admit it, but proclaim it vehemently.

So before Minister Bracken had fairly ended his remarks the isolationist bloc on Capitol Hill sprang up as one man. "Hurray, we're peace mongers," they yelled.

Proud Peace Mongers

The designation figures now in ordinary conversation.

Senators Burton K. Wheeler and Bennett Champ Clark are a couple of avowed peace mongers. When they meet in the Capitol lobby, as an exchange of greetings, "Good morning, Peace Monger," says each to each.

The more or less interventionistic element don't admit that they're war mongers, but the proclaimed peace mongers insist that they are, and so address 'em face to face—"Good afternoon, Mr. War Monger, How'dy do?"

The advantage is all with the peace mongers, for they're thoroughly willing to be thus identified, whereas it makes a war monger extremely angry to be saluted to this effect. Yet he doesn't want to class as a peace monger, either.

If the interventionists would admit that they are war mongers, there virtually would exist two new parties in congress—peace mongers and war mongers.

Just which would be in a majority it's hard to tell. The really noisy members of the peace mongering alignment are a rather small group, but if the two aggregations got down to a clean-cut vote, there probably would be a good many doubtful solons who'd prefer peace to war mongering.

Anyway, Minister Bracken's crack solidified the peace mongers, and, if anything, it rattled the interventionists, which certainly wasn't what he intended to do.

Not only are some of our own Yankees a bit critical of English statesmen's utterances and of the English press' comment relative to Uncle Sam's activities in connection with the war. I notice that Canadians incline to be similarly critical. Their news correspondents are pretty numerous in Washington, on war assignments. They think they understand the United States far better than their home islanders, and their freely expressed judgment is that the latter indulge in considerable comment that they don't think calculated to make a hit with Americans generally.

CANADIAN'S VIEW

As one of them observed to me the other day, "if you, as a citizen of the United States, were to speak of some of your own senators and representatives as peace mongers it would be your privilege.

"But it comes with a poor grace from an Englishman. It's none of his business who's elected to congress over here."

As to Senator Bennett Champ Clark's response to Minister Bracken's invitation to our lawmakers to visit England for a look-see, "I'll have to send my regrets," quoth the Missouri solon. "I'm a peace monger."

Hamilton Fish Goes "Lindbergh"

At an America First Committee meeting before a German-American audience in Ridgewood, Queens, Fish said:

"If this committee wants to be known as the Fight For Jewdom Committee, that's their choice."

Most Appropriate

"Colonel Lindbergh's sly implanting in the mind of some segments of the American people under the guise of loving the Jews and being sorry for them, puts one in mind of Mark Twain's remark about Cecil Rhodes. "I admire him, I frankly confess it, and when his time comes, I shall buy a piece of the rope for a keepsake."—Dr. Asher Isaacs in August 22nd American Jewish Outlook.

'M-Day' Bill Stalled In Hawaii Senate

HONOLULU,—Strenuous senate objections to Gov. Joseph Poindexter's emergency war bill indefinitely stalled the measure in committee after charges were hurled that the "M-Day" measure gave "totalitarian" powers to the governor.

Sens. Joseph R. Farrington and Harold M. Rice assailed the bill during its first reading, and thereafter the senate, sitting as a committee of the whole, adjourned indefinitely without action.

It was agreed by the committee, however, that army and navy chiefs would be invited to testify.

A Mother Passes

There is just one man, out of all the millions of men living on earth at this moment, who has it within his personal power to halt the fearsome carnage that is occuring day upon day in Europe. That man is not Adolf Hitler. That man is Franklin Delano Roosevelt. He happens at the moment, by a strange caprice of Kismet, to be President of the United States.

If Franklin Delano Roosevelt should issue a statement to His Majesty's government of England that the country of which he is Chief Executive, had arrived at the conclusion that henceforth it purposed to serve its own aims and interests, and supply no more free warships, airplanes, guns and munitions to Great Britain, His Majesty's government would ask the German Reich for an armistice within twenty-four hours. The satanic slaughter in Europe would stop. Not another human being would be killed. Adolf Hitler has implied upon a score of occasions that he would be only too glad to consider such a settlement. But so long as England has the enormous resources of America to draw upon, at not one cent of expense to herself, the war will go on.

Therefore the blood of every soldier and civilian that is spilled, so long as this possibility of peace exists, flows squarely upon the head, shoulders and hands of the man who lives in the American White House.

What a colossal act of wickedness is his. And what a karma to face in the hereafter!

More unthinkable still, this man is not only able to halt the mass murder being done day unto day overseas, but he is using his vast power as head of a major nation, to involve his own people in the holocaust, to bring about entry of his country and kind into the unholy and unhallowed embroilment. Thus his sins are not only those of omission but commission as well. And he will not lift his hand or his voice, excepting to say that "in the name of humanity" the butchery must go onward till a foreign nation's—Great Britain's—trade purposes are served and the German people are "crushed".

The woman who bore this man into the mortal vale of tears made the Great Passing on Sunday afternoon. One wonders how Sara Delano Roosevelt is presently to regard her man-child when she has gotten herself oriented in the Octave of All Enlightenment.

Lindbergh, Best Type American

Charles Augustus Lindbergh has done America the best service when he named the Jews one of the three groups of war mongers in America. That the radio commentators and the newspapers, which are hired by the Jews to defend the Jewish cause, everywhere in the world, are now descending upon Lindbergh with condemnation, merely proves how timely Lindbergh's warning to America and the Jews themselves is,

When an alien race of Mongolian-Negro-White mongrels, intermixed with every other shade and race besides, assumes through ruthless usury operations and capitalization of the white man's trustfulness as well as gullibility and especially through capitalization of his vices, to dominate that race, as the Jews have done in Europe and now are doing in America, a re-action is bound to follow.

Lindbergh is the best friend the Jews have in America. He told them the TRUTH as truly as Jesus did 1900 years ago. Lindbergh, like Jesus risked his position to tell that warning Truth and like Jesus he is being condemned for telling the Truth. The Jews do not want the Truth, because it queers their conspiracy to rule America as they are ruling Britain and Russia.

The matter at issue is FREE SPEECH. If it is un-American to defend America against this Mongolian invasion which took over our federal government, by subtly boring from within, then America is being faced by a new battle for American principles.

Lindbergh is not the only man who will gladly give his life to defend America against alien invaders. The fact that the invaders are already in political and financial mastery of our country does not detract from the fact that the battle is on and millions of Americans will risk their honor, their substance and their lives to preserve America. You cannot down such Americans.

If the Jews cannot stand the TRUTH, too bad for them!

Jews Are Mongolians or Negroids

Historical records relate how in the dispersion, after the Jews crucified Jesus and attacked Rome's rule with armed force, a small contingent migrated from Palestine into Europe along North Africa where they mixed with Moors, Berbers and others.

Another contingent, much larger in numbers, went northest toward Mongolia. According to the New Webster International Dictionary, a powerful nation arose betwen the eastern steppes and the Caspian Sea, called the Khazars, converts to Judaism. Until 950 A. D. they inhabited the steppes of Mongolia, Siberia and East Turkestan. Over-run later by Ghengis Khan, great Mongol-Tartar leader, they were carried far into Europe, and then thrown back into the Caucasus, becoming known as 'Mountain Jews'. The Mongolian Invasion swept down into Palestine, dominating in 1400 to 1600.

Lenin has been described as having Mongolian blood, he was referred to as a 'Calmyc' or Kalmuk, from the region of the Caucasus which is also Stalin's homeland. Lenin spoke Yiddish, married a Jewess and attended Zionist meetings.

Stalin and Litvinoff, before coming to power were arrested as bandits in Tiflis territory in the Caucasus. Stalin's wife is a sister of the Jew Kaganowitch, who also comes from the same 'Mountain Jew' district.

U. S. immigration laws exclude Asiatics from entance in the U. S. if they are of Mongolian blood. Mere ignorance of our authorities permitted this illegal entry of Jews during the last 150 years. The Russian, Rumanian, Polish and formerly Austrian Jews, all are Ashkenazi Mongolians, which explains why they do not mix well with white people, always remain a separate clan, distrustful of our institutions and ideals and make perfect Communists and New Dealers. As Mongolians they are collectivists, white men only are Individualists.

Our anthropologists arbitrarily coined the term Caucasian for the white race. And because the 'Mountain Jews' came from the Caucasus, they were considered white, which they are not. Any traveler who knows the Caucasus knows what a mixture of races lives there. The designation ARYAN for the white race is the proper distinction. The Kalmuks are Mongolians, even though they live in the Caucasus region.

GOD SAVE THE TRUTH

I

God save the slums of London,
Three hundred miles and more,
God keep the hordes of Hitler
Far from Britannia's shore;
For England must be England
For ever and a day;
For what makes England England
No man shall take away.

II

God save the throne of England:
The royal Norman line,
Which, by the power of conquest,
Did prove itself divine;
For power to get is right to have,
Where'er man's foot has trod;
And conquest ever has the right,
And by the will of God.

III

God save the Bank of England,
Nor let the people learn:
It ever is and ever was
A very queer concern.
God save the Bank of England,
And keep the people dumb;
For, if folks knew just what it is,
The end of it might come.

IV

God save the English clergy,
Of high or low degree;
And save each one and all of them,
Whatever they may be;
Well knowing that whate'er they preach
Of verity and grace
That it, to be where now it is,
Came from some other place.

V

God save the souls of Englishmen,
Come here from o'er the sea,
Who fought, with valor & success,
From England to be free.
God grant, if any like to them
Still in this land remain,
Our patriot heroes of the past
Shall not have fought in vain.

VI

God save the souls of sailormen,
Our heroes staunch and brave,
Who did not feel Britannia should
Completely rule the wave.
Or was it distant where they fought
Or Erie's inland sea,
God help us to remember them
And somewhat like them be.

VII

God save the souls of those who came
And did become our own:
Too little of them has been said,
Too little of them known.
They helped the Union to survive:
Too scant has been their fame.
'Twas not from them or theirs arose
The Alabama Claim.

VIII

God save the truth and give it power
In times of strain and stress;
For truth can cure us of the ills
Made ours through selfishness.
Once more there comes the clarion call:
Let him who can, be brave.
The truth and what the truth can give
Is all we ought to save.

MAZDAZNAN STATEMENT
By Dr. O. Z. Ha'nish

I am a Mazdaznan, and herewith make my statement according to the only infallible, inspired, divine and revealed religion:

That there is no authority greater than God and no religion higher than Truth.

I must obey God more than man.

I must love the Lord my God with all my heart, my mind, my strength and all that is within me.

I must love my neighbor as my own.

I must hold to the covenant that I am here upon this earth to reclaim the earth to turn the deserts into a paradise, a paradise most suitable unto God and His Associates to dwell therein.

I must be royal in principle and democratic in application.

I must never cause an infliction, death or injury to any flesh or blood be it animal or man.

I must not partake of animal flesh, blood or fats during times of prosperity, neither resort to it in case of famine or torture to save myself from starvation; for he who clings to life shall lose it.

I must never raise my hand or a weapon of any kind against my brother, a friend or foe, for all they that take the sword shall perish by it.

I must never engage in any business or profession calculated to inflict injury, or the destruction of life and property.

I must declare and make peace with an adversary quickly thru non-resistance and by arbitration.

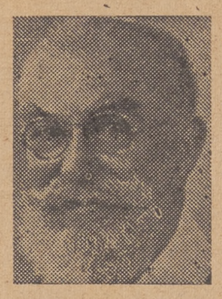
HEALTH-GERMS

By George Starr White, M. D.

SODA FOUNTAINS & DYSPEPSIA

LOS ANGELES,—It is a common practice to put fruit jams and sauces over ice cream just before it is eaten. This is a harmful mixture. It would not be so bad if the fruit were well mixed with the cream an hour or more before it was eaten.



Dr. Geo. Starr White

The ice cream chills the stomach and slows up the action of the stomach. The jams and preserves are right there to be taken care of. While being sorted out from the casein and fat in the cream, the fruit starts up an irritating process that is liable to inflame the stomach and produce dyspepsia. As dyspepsia progresses, the intestines become inflamed and the rectum takes on a condition of un-health.

"Soda-Pop" is not good for the digestive tract. The ever increasing number of "soda fountains" give all the rectal and bladder specialists a hint that they will gradually have more business than they can attend to. Try to prevent rectal and urinary troubles and thus keep the doctors from being worked to death!

Ice-cold foods and drinks are hard on the stomach and in the long run less "cooling" than those less cold. They chill the body and set up a reaction which ends up making the victim warmer than ever. Sweets and fats are heat-giving; so the less they are eaten in summer and the more cool (not ice-cold) water is taken the cooler the person suffering from hot weather will be.

KOSTI—What are you using now?

VEIVA—As soon as you published his letter in which he called attention to naturopathic teachings which forbid the use of salt for vegetarians, I went to the North Park Health Food Store and asked them for a non-salted spread which I could use to butter toast with. They told me to use pure Coconut Fat. I have tried it and it is delicious. It costs only half as much as butter. What have you to say against the use of salt?

KOSTI—Salt is a preservative. Vegetarians do not need it in chemical form, because they have no need of preserving their food. Only when you have to keep bacon, ham, and other meats from spoiling, do you need salt. We don't eat meat, so why eat salt?

VEIVA— But even a cow licks salt, and cows are vegetarians, aren't they?

KOSTI—Because cows love to lick salt, do you have to be a cow? This comparison between pigs and humans, these experiments on rats which are made in laboratories, it does not prove a thing as far as the human organism is concerned. The human mind has a lot to do with the functions of our body. What is one man's meat is another man's poison.

VEIVA— How, then, are vegetarians to supply the necessary salt to their foods?

KOSTI—By using vegetable salt. Not mineral salt mixed with vegetables which sell under the name of VEGETIZED salt, but real salt obtained from dried vegetables. In this organic form, salt is assimilated without bad after effect while the mineral salt acts like a drug and preserves tissue so it won't be attacked by decomposition. Vegetarians don't need it.

IT JUST HAPPENS

An orange with my breakfast
And plenty of butter
Over the golden brown toast.
A glass of rich milk,
And oatmeal with cream.

But really I don't mean to boast.
What are they eating in Poland now?
In Denmark and Holland and France?
Those people are just as good as I am.
My blessings are all due to chance.

How wise the man who said with a sigh:
"There, but for the grace of God, go I!"

BRITISH STARVE CHILDREN

The Editor:

In a recent issue of pictorial weekly, a photo reveals a pitiful group of underfed German children taken at termnation of last world war, waged to make the world safe for everyone. Certainly, the British method of starving opponents into submission, is not calculated to promote the glorious freedom promised by politicians when a quartet of banners symbolizing universal freedom are unfurled. Such methods merely engender hatred while preparing mental soils for future bloody conflict. Isn't it possible to find better ways and means of settling international disputes than by burning, bombing and starving? If not, our so-called civilization is a myth. The ghastly policy of "an eye for an eye" has been repeatedly tried and "found wanting". The founder of Christianity said, "Feed my sheep."

Guy de Maupassant wrote: "War! Slaughtering! Butchering men! And to think that now, in our century . . . we should have schools in which we teach the art of killing, of killing at a distance, to perfection, numbers of people at the same time; poor devils, innocent men, fathers of families. Ah! let us proclaim the peremptory truth, 'Let us dishonor war.' "

By Charles H. Ingersoll

NEW YORK.—Among the most recent illiteracies our Federal government is trying to popularize is that of Mortimer Eccles, who heads the Federal Reserve System, which should be literate if any of government is. He deliberately says it is a popular error to suppose that installment buying increases sales and production!

This is equivalent to saying that the whole banking system of credit about which Mr. Eccles is supposed to know something, does not contribute to business volume, profit and prosperity.

Equally inept is the anti-inflation propaganda, attempting to make tolerable increased consumer taxation, by the false statement that it will curb inflation by curbing buying and consuming.

The destruction of mass buying power, which has already been accomplished by such taxation, has doubled our prices, halved consumption and production, and sent millions of able workers to WPA. In other words, such taxes have already created 100% of inflation; so our Wallaces, Hopkinses, and Ickeses offer them as a remedy for further inflation now imminent.

'War Managers', as they are frankly called in England, and those who 'believe in war', are always at their wits ends trying to reconcile the tragedies, cruelties, and insanities of war, with the realities of normal life. Between the pure militarists who have no illusions, and so attempt no reconciliation, and those who would have no war at any price, the pacifists, are the million who are torn by this process of trying to justify what will not be justified.

Not to tarry with a hundred things that would show this war anomaly, take the two incidents of (1) sustaining draftee morale, while uprooting him in peace time; and (2) avoiding war-inflation which people are already impoverished by peace time inflation.

The answer comes back in the same old refrain given by Gene Grace of Bethlehem, on the witness stand:— "IF you don't want war profiteering, don't have wars."

The experiment of world wars for democracy is so far no more encouraging than the previous war record of the great plunderbunds: as if they were no different because of democratic sponsorship.

Terrorism among 1,010,000 school children of N. Y., largely to satisfy the idiosyncracy of a war-mongering New Deal ex-Socialist mayor, is too big a crime in child life to overlook from any viewpoint, far or near.

Florello, whose itch for regimentation, for planning, for spending, for bossing, for bureacracy, and a few dozen other idiosyncracies belonging only to ' a new order' which is a general contagion— wants to start this army of babies on the road to war consciousness, which must precede war, by springing on them a complete war curriculum!

The idea of exploiting babies was originally (in World War No.1) credited to the Kaiser, who was credited with the wisdom of saying, 'Give me a child until he is seven, and you may then have him.' His successor, as dictator of Germany, has proven this wisdom and may 'win' as a result. The Catholic Church has made most universal use of this obvious opportunity for self-perpetuation. The Boy Scout movement was a subversion of normal child life, with a mixture of patriotism and militarism behind it.

With all these successful examples, gas mask drills and ghost stories about bombing can hardly be thought original.

The Old World War graft of encampment housing per soldier was considered shocking at $206 per man. But now official investigator Senator Truman finds it to be $702.

This story impresses me about as one of the current photos of the 'burned over' ground of only one blitzkrieg city, Vitebsk by name, 127,000 population. The destructions are not unlike in two human fields, and both spelling madness that can precede nothing but universal destruction of humanity unless its sanity can be restored. The madness of war, bringing to us the confusion and thievery of bureaucratic government, commonly known as Communism, is all a piece of the same cloth of monopoly, whose devastation is most graphically pictured in these burned-over modern cities.

The exiling of 390,000 Germans to Siberia by USSR is not such a bad pay-off for what Hitler did to the Jews. In addition to the big headlined bombing of Berlin by London, and the same kind of counter attacks to the German invasion, a genuine neutral almost begins to shed tears over the plight of poor Germany. At least, it provokes wonder at the neutrality of the news-machinery that serves U. S. A.

A modern reign of terror in France seems in the making, and from very logical material. Never was a nation so afflicted by varied and confusing elements. Since World War No. 1, the Republic has been in a Unionist-Socialist uproar and passed through an actual Marxian-Socialist regime. Then, with a zero morale quite natural to its adventures in revolution and riot, it was easy picking for Adolph. He, however, has been a rather benevolent despot; and is only just now cracking down.

M-Day Legislation Unnecessary

What has become of the M-Day military bill? It was a bill introduced by Congressman May authorizing the President to force every American owning $10,000 and more of property, goods or intangibles, to buy government bonds, or if unable or unwilling, then the government is empowered to mortgage his property at 6% interest and penalties and buy the alloted amount of bonds for him.

The purpose of the bill was given as an emergency measure for the defense of America. The REAL purpose of the bill was to take away the property of Americans, mortgage it and then sell it at bankruptcy prices to the Jews, while the money of the Gentiles is tied up in government bonds, which in time would be repudiated, as the gold obligations have been, etc.

But all that has become unnecessary. The administration has found a better way for expropriation of Gentiles. It is called PRIORITY. It bankrupts the Gentiles much better and more painlessly to the politicians in the name of DEFENSE of the American way. That's why the Jews sing: God bless America.

There are a few American businessmen who are not afraid to call their souls their own, you'll find their advertisements in THE BROOM.

Patronize them !

Mary: "I didn't know Ted had any idea of marrying you."

Ann: "He didn't; that was my idea."

"Does your husband ever quarrel with you?"

"Goodness, no! James is too much of a gentlemen. He just goes out and slams the door!"

Canada in Exchage for War Debt

Gentlemen:

Enclosed herewith a dollar bill for which kindly send me THE BROOM for as many weeks as it will buy.

By the way, could you tell me whether Congressman Ed. V. Izac of your district is Jewish? He seems to be the rubber stamp for President Roosevelt.

Some time ago I wrote him a letter to turn his effort to helping America instead of England and stated "Why not buy Canada from England for the money we are lending them and for money she already owes us." He wrote me back that this was the most assinine proposition he ever heard of.

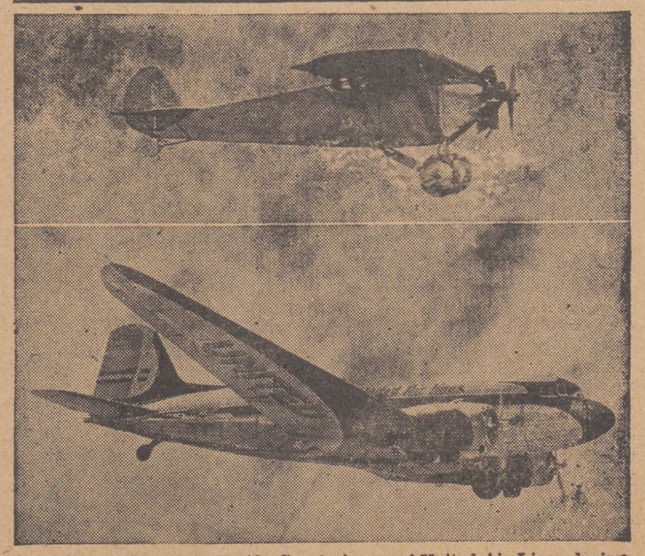
Since then I have been thinking whether the Louisiana, the Mexican and the Alaskan purchases were also assinine. This seems to be food for thought.

Please let me hear from you.

COL. H. L. KLUTE,
San Francisco.

Editor's Note: I am not in a position to tell whether Ed Izac would proudly announce that his ancestors were Jewish, as his name denotes. In the olden days some Jews underwent baptism to escape discrimination and receive special favors, while some were baptized because they had outgrown Judaism and destested its treacherous teachings under the guise of Talmudic religion. As to purchasing Canada: Canada is going to unite with the U. S. as a matter of selfdetermination within a generation when all the world will turn against the U. S. in the next world war, because the U. S. is helping England starve them.

15 Years on Coast Airway



Progress made on the Pacific Coast airway of United Air Lines during the past 15 years is told graphically in these pictures of (top) the single-engined open cockpit 90-mile-an-hour plane which inaugurated coast-wise air mail service September 15, 1926, and (below) the type of twin-engined 21-passenger 200-mile-an-hour Mainliner now flown on multiple passenger-cargo schedules between cities of British Columbia, Washington, Oregon and California.

Labor Racket

Attention . .

BUTCHERS AND INTERESTED PUBLIC

Why don't the labor racketeers tell you that there are now 33 meat markets n San Diego City and County selling meat after 6:00 p. m. and on Sundays and holidays?

Why don't the labor racketeers tell you that the contract you have signed is of no value at all?

Why don't the labor racketeers tell you that they are unable to stop the Cuyamaca Meats?

Why don't the labor racketeers tell you what they do with all the money they are collecting from you?

If they answered the above questions honestly they would lose the rest of their membership, and along with it the many dollars you have been paying them. Then labor could organize the American type of union eliminating the reds and racketeers.

Arrest of Picket May Bring Test Case of New Law

LOS ANGELES,—What may prove a case testing California's four-day-old "Picket-Trespass" Law developed with the arrest of Errol M. Bealer, 43-year-old A. F. of L. Carpenter, in North Long Beach.

Bealer was arrested by Sheriff's officers when he persisted, after other pickets had stepped aside, in standing on tracks of a spur line bringing supplies to the Jones Brothers' Construction Company defense housing project on Orange avenue.

The housing project, comprising 800 projected homes, has been picketed by the A. F. of L. for several days according to Captain Ernest Sichler of the Sheriff's Norwalk Substation.

Monday and Tuesday pickets adopted the strategem of standing on tracks and refusing to give right of way to trains.

The law which was passed by the last legislature, and which went into effect only last Saturday, makes it a misdemeanor to trespass on property with intent to interfere with the business of the owner.

Bealer, who lives at 815½ Pioneer boulevard, Norwalk, was released on his own recognizance to appear for entry of plea at 2 p. m. Wednesday.

Anniversary Issue Next Week

You would hardly believe that this is the last issue of Vol. XI. Next week comes our anniversary number ushering in the twelfth year of publication. We started this paper without a penny of capital as an independent weekly. We still have not a penny of capital and are still independent. Our secret lies in our reliance on the principle expressed in St. Matthew, Chapter 10, verses 9-10; 26-32. You will do well to recapitulate those passages. We have demonstrated their active power, lo these eleven years among you.

Beginning with this issue we are introducing a new policy regarding publication of our radio comments. Instead of publishing the whole program, we shall present only certain portions and at times print none at all. You are free to listen to the talks if interested. In that fashion we shall have more space to present matters not mentioned elsewhere.

Try It Elsewhere

THE COUNTRY has had another glittering example of irresponsible labor leadership. In the case of Kansas City, which was blacked out because two rival unions could not agree on which one would collect the dues of power plant workers, lives and property were endangered over a wide area. For without warning master switches were pulled and lights went out leaving hospital operating rooms in darkness.

To the everlasting credit of its officials, Kansas City acted quickly and jailed the ringleaders of the strike. No time was lost negotiating with the hoodlums who came in from the outside. It was the practical application of a formula that ought to be applied in every instance where a community is endangered, in any degree by irresponsible crackpots with a yen for trouble. There are laws against conduct of this sort and a few test cases might prove that despite the coddling which the agitators and trouble makers have received in some circles in the past any community can protect itself from them if it has officials with enough intestinal fortitude to do it.

"For All They That Take the Sword"

(Excerpt from Radio Talk, KGB, Tuesday 9:15 pm)

VEIVA—How did President Roosevelt's radio address impress you last Thursday night when he gave orders to the U. S. Navy to shoot German war vessels on sight?

KOSTI—His closing words stayed with me for a long time. I wish you would read them over again, for they are the most important part of the whole speech. They are the basis upon which all action becomes effective. Have you got the text of his radio speech handy?

VEIVA— Yes here it is: "And with that inner strength that comes to a free people conscious of their duty—conscious of the righteousness of what they do, they will—with divine help and guidance—stand their ground against this latest assault upon their democracy their sovereignity and their fredom."

KOSTI—These are most memorable words. In this grave crisis we must look for divine guidance and must be willing to obey God if we do not want to lose our democracy, our sovereignity and our freedom. Naturally, first we must stand by the Constitution which guarantees to each one of us our freedom, our sovereignity and the democratic process of government which excludes dictatorship by one man. In Germany, Italy and Russia just one man holds the power over life and death, over war and peace, but under our Constitution only the Congress can declare war and to make treaties with foreign powers it takes the consent of the Senate. This representative system of govvernment we must not abolish unless we are willing to abolish the Constitution from which alone issues the legal authority of American government. And so I followed the President's admonition to look for divine guidance.

VEIVA—What did you do?

KOSTI—When we need true humanitarian leadership which all of us may follow without the slightest doubt or fear as to its right direction, I always think of Jesus Christ as our best leader. The President's speech reminded me of the most memorable hour which Jesus spent in the Garden of Gethsemane as recorded in the Gospel text according to St. Matthew, chapter 26, verses 51 and 52. I wish you would read them.

VEIVA—And, behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear. Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into its place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

KOSTI—That tells us what all who draw the sword must expect. The reaction always equals the action. If people would only look to divine guidance when confronted with important situations they could have peace and goodwill on earth.

VEIVA—That's what Roger Babson said, when he reminded us that if all of us were to "take orders" from God, instead of one race trying to dominate other races, soon peace and prosperity would become a reality in this world.

LINDBERGH and FATHER COUGHLIN

V0IVA—That reminds me; do you think Charles Lindbergh will be permitted to speak over the air again after his last speech from Des Moines, Iowa? You know Father Coughlin is off the air.

KOSTI—You don't seem to understand the situation. Father Coughlin stopped his broadcasts voluntarily he was not denied the absolute use of radio facilities. There were a few stations that dropped him, but more than 20 other stations were willing to carry his broadcast.

VEIVA—Why, then, is he not broadcasting?

KOSTI—He gave his explanation, by saying that he wants to be in good standing with his Bishop. You know he has freedom to say what he wants under our Constitutional rights but he prefers to abide by the wishes of his Bishop. As soon as Myron Taylor went to the Vatican, I have it on good authority, the British government promised not to bomb Rome. You know at that time there was also formed a Federated Council of Churches, where the various Protestant, Catholic and Jewish denominations are represented. The Jewish group contributed $125,000 to the Federated Council and $125,000 to the Vatican for the cause of religious solidarity.

VEIVA—So you don't think that radio is going to muzzle Charles Lindbergh?

KOSTI—I am sure you are going to listen to him many more times, we are still living in America.

THE ROSEBUSH

A rosebush whispered in my ear;
"The one you love is always near,
And tho you may be far apart
Her image is deep in your heart,
And in your nostrils lingers still
Her fragrance, filling you with thrill."

—Otto Schkoelziger.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

To win a little military glory; to rouse the miserable vanities and vile passions that masquerade under the name of patriotism; to excite the madness that in man, as in some other animals is worked by blood, is the most potent resource of a governing class who wish to divert attention from home matters and secure an unreasoning, unquestioning support.
